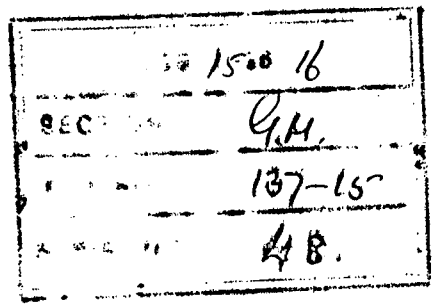
THE MYTHIC SOCIETY.

DIARY NO. 8066

Bangalore 11th March 1916



S i r,

Now that the Mythic Society, Bangalore, has had the good fortune to secure a habitation for itself through the generous help afforded by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, it is anxious to build up a library of research befitting alike the honoured name associated with the Hall and the high aims and objects of the Society.

2. The Society has already succeeded, with the kind support of the Honourable the British Resident in obtaining the Archaelogical, Ethnographic and historical and other similar publications of the following Governments and Administrations in India:-

1. The Government of India
2. The Government of Madras
3. The Government of Bengal
4. The Government of Bombay
5. The Government of United Provinces
6. The Government of the Punjab
7. The Government of Burma.

They have now over 1000 volumes on hand.

3 As the work of the Society lies mainly in Southern India and particularly Mysore, it will greatly facilitate

THE MYTHIC SOCIETY.

Bangalore 11th March 1916

facilitate the work of the Society if His Highness's Government are pleased to order the free supply to it of all their publications connected with history, archaeology, ethnography, religious and Oriental study and the inclusion of the Society in the free list of the Departments.publishing such works.

draft copies 1

4 Any old works of historical interest which the Government can spare out of their Library will also be thankfully received, and made use of to the fullest extent possible.
